Amended Clause of the Contract.

Date _____

By signing the contract you customer (1) and customer (2) agree to any and all of the terms listed in the contract. You the customers understand that if for any reason you cancel your event lose your deposit and are required to pay Big T's Entertainment 50% of the agreed upon balance owed within (14) calendar days of the agreed upon event date. For example: if the balance of your reception is $500, your cancellation fee is then $250.

The deposit and signed contract is your protection and you're guarantee that Big T's Entertainment will provide the services agreed upon. Meaning the day you choose to have Big T's Entertainment provide DJ services to you that date is blocked off in my calendar for you. In the event you choose to cancel the said event date without this amended clause I would be without work/additional work for that day and could have booked that date with someone else.

I agree to the terms outlined in this amended clause of the contract.
